

Currency Devaluation Jolts World Trading

British Have Trouble At Grass Roots

London, Sept. 20.—(AP)—The full jolt of currency devaluation by Britain and 20 other countries hit the world's markets today.

It went down to the roots of Britain's labor party, threatened by open revolt among the workers angry at the thought of inflationary prices and the hold-the-line wage policy.

It seemed about to bowl Italy, western Germany and Belgium into the monetary bargain basement.

Cut Rell

Mark-down prices already had been tagged on the money of Britain, Greece, France, Canada, Sweden, the Netherlands, Norway, Denmark, Finland, Iceland, Ireland, South Africa, Australia, New Zealand, Ceylon, India, Burma, Egypt, Iraq and Israel.

On Britain's home front the labor government girded for what may be the fight of its life. It was expected to call parliament back into session Tuesday in response to a demand by Winston Churchill for a debate on the situation under which the value of the pound was cut from $4.03 to $2.80.

To support its stand, the government was expected to put out to labor members a so-called three-line whip. This, in effect, is an order to labor members to attend and support the government or face party disciplinary action.

Such orders would indicate a fear Churchill may demand a vote of censure. Government defeat on a motion of censure by tradition calls for a new general election.

Labor Ranks Divided

A division in labor's ranks was indicated tonight when the general council of the trades union congress met for three hours and 45 minutes without agreeing on a policy toward devaluation of the pound.

The council represents 8,000,000 union workers, backbone of the labor party.

A council statement said only that the council is certain the government made a "careful assessment of all the factors involved."

While a frenzied seizer traders in London's stock exchange and on South Africa's gold trading floor and uncertainty reigned in American commodity markets, these developments marked the devaluation scene:

Greece devalued the drachma to 15,000 to the dollar and 42,000 to the pound. The old value was 10,000 to the dollar, 32,000 to the pound.

The Netherlands announced her guilder will be 30 per cent cheaper in dollars. This is a reduction of just over 30 per cent, and about equal to Britain's. The new guilder is worth 26.32 cents as against the old value of 37.65 cents. Indonesian currency took the same dip.

The undersecretary of the Italian treasury indicated the lire will be devalued, but the government hopes it will not be more than 12 per cent.

"Important news" was forecast from a Belgian cabinet meeting to night.

Dr. Konrad Adenauer, chancellor of the New West German republic, said the west mark, now pegged at 36 cents, will have to be devalued.

U.S. Experts Say New Rocket Fuels Twice As Powerful

Cleveland, Sept. 20.—(AP)—Government experts said today they are experimenting with fuels two and a half times mightier than commonly used rocket fuels and are studying even mightier formulas.

This was disclosed at the nation's chief center of aircraft propulsion research, the $50,000,000 National Advisory Committee for Aeronautics Laboratory, during its third annual inspection by leaders from all branches of aviation.

The statement followed a prediction that "sustained" supersonic flight speeds—limited thus far to a matter of seconds—is near. How near and for how long such flight might be was not said.

Supersonic means faster than sound, which varies its speed with temperature from about 800 miles an hour on a hot day near the ground to 650 mph in the frigid stratosphere.

Rocket fuel is extremely important in high speed flight; for two main reasons: (1) a rocket engine can produce more power for size and weight than any other, and (2) it is the only engine that operates at altitudes where the atmosphere does not have enough oxygen to supply other engine types.

Burbank, Calif., Sept. 20.—(AP)—Film actor Cary Grant was resting comfortably today after minor surgery. He entered a hospital yesterday for a few days' observation and while there, had a cyst removed.

Romulo Elected Head Of 4th UN Assembly

New York, Sept. 20.—(AP)—Brigade quarrels between east and west won Gen. Carlos P. Romulo, anti-communist campaigner from the Philippines, was elected president of the fourth United Nations assembly today with 53 votes. Only the five nations of the Soviet bloc voted against him.

Romulo's first act was an appeal to the delegates to make this the "peace assembly."

Yugoslavia apparently voted against the Soviet bloc for the first time in the secret ballot for president, but declined to admit it publicly.

Five votes—presumably those of the Soviet bloc—were cast for Vladimir Clementis, Czechoslovak foreign minister, for president. In previous assemblies the Russian group always has polled at least six votes.

Romulo's election to succeed Dr. Herbert V. Evatt, Australian foreign minister, has been a foregone conclusion for weeks but the 48-year-old ex-newspaperman refused to "count his chickens until they were hatched."

Congratulated before the meeting, he held up a warning finger and said: "Not yet."

In his 21-minute speech to the assembly, Romulo called on the delegates—including the foreign ministers of the United States, Russia, Britain, France and more than a dozen other countries—to move boldly forward in the spirit of international cooperation called for by the Mexican resolution approved unanimously last year in Paris.

This resolution pledged the great powers to the peaceful settlement of their disputes. But after a short session of harmony at Paris the old

Arrest 2 Youths
Shortly After They Shoot Policeman

Chicago, Sept. 20.—(AP)—Two young negro marijuana smokers shot and killed a policeman early today—and then learned that justice can move swiftly.

Within a few hours after the slaying a general pickup order went out for Sydney Johnson, 17, and Roosevelt Bacus, 16.

The two then gave themselves up, confessed, retracted the killing before 500 witnesses and reportedly were accused of murder in true bills returned by the Cook county grand jury.

The victim was Patrolman David F. Keating, 34, father of four children. The slayers pumped nine pistol slugs into him when he attempted to question them on a south side street about a disarmed shotgun they were carrying.

Police said Johnson's brother, Clarence, told them he had seen both Sydney and young Bacus smoke marijuana cigarettes.

Attempted Escape
At Cook Co. Jail
Thwarted Tuesday

Chicago, Sept. 20.—(AP)—An attempted escape at the Cook county jail was thwarted today with the discovery of two partially sawed steel plates in the cells of two prisoners.

All prisoners, including four under death sentence, were removed from the tier on the top floor. A search was started for saws.

John E. Donnelly, assistant superintendent of the jail, said he discovered the sawed plates while on a routine inspection of the tiers. He said he found a steel cog, which had been fashioned into a crude, chisel-like instrument, in the cell of one of the prisoners.

The cells in which the sawed plates were found were occupied by Wagner, 49, under indictment for murder, and Walter Tomaszewski, 29. The latter was slated to leave for Joliet penitentiary shortly to begin serving a one year to life sentence for robbery.

Proud Papa At 75;

Paris, Tenn., Sept. 20.—(AP)—C. J. Clark, 75, was a proud papa today. But the feeling wasn't a new one. The offspring was, by his own count, the 25th.

"And I expect to have a lot more," he beamed.

The latest child, eight-pound, fine-ounce Kenneth Gordon Clark, was born to his 29-year-old wife, Estelle, yesterday.

Ford Offers Workers Steel Board's Plan For Pensions

Detroit, Sept. 20.—(AP)—A CIO—"intensive" stage of bargaining United Automobile Workers source started last Thursday. Since then, said tonight the Ford Motor Co. has submitted an offer in the current contract negotiations in line with the president's steel fact-finding recommendations, and their in-house recommendation on pensions.

The union source said the Ford proposal would give workers pensions of $50 a month or more at the age of 68 exclusive of social security. Any settlement reached between Ford and the UAW might well set a pattern for all heavy industry.

Steel fact-finders recommended the equivalent of up to a 10-cent an hour "package" increase to cover pensions and health insurance. Not even the steel firms were forced to follow the recommendations.

There was no immediate comment from the UAW, which handed Ford the equivalent of a 10-day strike notice yesterday.

The UAW reportedly is holding out for either a better pension offer or more in the form of health insurance.

If Ford follows the steel board recommendation it would be the first large company to do so.

Thus far, United States Steel Corp., the leaders of that industry, has refused. A national steel strike is set for 12:01 a.m. Sunday. Other heavy industries also have refused to go along.

Ford has been in contract negotiations with the CIO-United Auto Workers since June 2. The so-called

Train Crashes Gas
Truck, Killing The Driver, Injuring 4

Pottsville, Pa., Sept. 20.—(AP)—A train plowed into a gasoline-loaded truck today killing one man and injuring four others. The truck was split in two.

The 4,500 gallons of gasoline exploded, searing three cars of the 10-car Reading company train and setting ablaze buildings and automobiles in the vicinity.

Clarence Goetz, 22, of Gap, Pa., the truck driver, was killed. Flames swept 75 feet high and burning gasoline poured down ditches endangering two homes. Two baggage cars behind the engine were scorched. Six passenger cars were in the rear but there were no injuries reported among passengers.

The train fireman, Kenneth Beck, 30, Schuylkill Haven, Pa., was thrown from the train like a human torch. Three other trainmen, who escaped from the baggage car, ran to him and smothered the flames. He was reported in critical condition at Pottsville hospital.

Hires NY Expert
To Make Chicago
Convention City

Chicago, Sept. 20.—(AP)—The Chicago Convention bureau hired a New York expert today in a move to keep Chicago on top as the nation's busiest convention city.

He is Chester A. Wilkins, national convention manager of the New York convention and visitors bureau for nearly four years. He will assume his post as executive director of the Chicago convention bureau Oct. 33. The Chicago post has been vacant since 1946.

The Chicago Convention bureau described the move as part of "a new and increasingly militant campaign to consolidate Chicago's already established position as the nation's busiest convention and trade show center and to stave off growing competition by other cities."

During 1948, nearly 1,000 conventions will have been staged here, attracting more than a million convention visitors. The Chicago bureau listed New York as the nation's No. 2 convention city in the number of conventions held and visitors attending.

Frankfort Man, 67,
Picked As 'Dad'
Of 2nd Infantry

Tacoma, Wash., Sept. 20.—(AP)—The "biggest thrill of my 67 years" was given Earl W. Moore, West Frankfort, Ill., coal miner, when he arrived here today.

Moore, chosen to be "Dad" of the crack 2nd Infantry division in a 15,000-entry contest last week, was greeted by this city's mayor, C. V. Fawcett, the chief of staff from Fort Lewis, Col. Joseph M. Tully, and a number of other dignitaries as he left his train.

Just as he was getting oriented, the tremble in his lip was quieting and his eye clearing, the post's kilted Scottish band let loose with "Annie Laurie" and "Auld Lang Syne."

It was almost too much for the man who raised 14 children—11 of his own and three orphans.

Supported on the arm of his son, Corp. Virgil Moore, who entered him in the contest, the aging man beat as quick a retreat as he could to the nearby staff car.

GAR VET DIES

Martin was Iowa's last surviving veteran of the Civil War.

Refinery Blast
Kills 2 In Texas

Fort Worth, Tex., Sept. 20.—(AP)—An oil refinery blast jarred Fort Worth today, set off a fire and killed at least two men. Nine others were injured.

The explosion was at Magnolia's refinery No. 1. Firemen climbed up on the refinery's superstructure to bring under control the fire which threatened for a time to set off charges of felonious malicious mischief.

The dead were George Aston, 42, refinery skill man, and Elbert R. Harris, sub-labor foreman.

The explosion occurred in a combination cracking unit at 8:55 a.m. Plant officials said they hadn't been going to enter the area to estimate damage.

Steel Industry Begins Digging In For Strike

U.S. Coal Stockpiles Eaten Away By Strike

Pittsburgh, Sept. 20.—(AP)—The two-day old coal strike today ate their wives. Miners in Murphysboro, Ill., were reported taking jobs in orchards, or river levee projects, or on construction jobs.

Furloughs of railroad workers continued to mount slowly. The Norfolk and Western Railway said at Roanoke, Va., it is laying off 1,650 motive power department workers Thursday because of the coal strike. Five other lines previously announced furloughs.

In Washington, presidential aide Charles Ross said Mr. Truman has "nothing in the works" in the way of coal strike intervention. He said "nothing is in sight."

The number of workers made jobless by the walkout passed the 500,000 mark. Included are John L. Lewis' 400,000 United Mine Workers and more than 27,000 rail employees furloughed by a half dozen coal carrying roads.

The miners "no pension no work" revolt is costing them more than $700,000 a day in lost wages. Added to this in strike costs is the pay loss of the railroads.

Coal diggers stopped work Monday to back up UMW President Lewis' fight for a new contract. The work stoppage began after Lewis announced failure of southern operators to continue 20 cent a ton royalty payments to the UMW pension and welfare fund had forced suspension of benefits to aged and ailing miners.

In contrast to scattered violence in Kentucky, West Virginia and Pennsylvania at start of the strike, the coal fields today were "as dead as the dodo" in the words of a Kentucky union official. Tipples rose bleak and silent into the sunlight in mining towns throughout 20 coal producing states. Miners put

Railroad Says It
Lost $400,000 On
Runs In 30 Months

Springfield, Ill., Sept. 20.—(AP)—The Chicago and Illinois Midland railway company said today it lost $404,551 during the 30 months period ended July 1 in operation of two daily and four Sunday trains between Springfield and Pekin.

Attorney Carl D. Forth made the statement at an Illinois Commerce Commission hearing on the railroad's application to discontinue the trains. Forth said that passenger use of the trains was insufficient to warrant their continuance.

He told the commission that only 4.3 percent of the capacity of the trains was used. The next hearing was set for Oct. 7 here.

Several railroad brotherhoods and Havana and Manito opposed the C&IM's request.

State Insurance
Dept. Approves
New Rate Changes

Springfield, Ill., Sept. 20.—(AP)—The state insurance department today approved new rates by 36 insurance companies reducing premiums on collision and automobile fire and theft prices effective next month.

Rates on comprehensive and on fire and theft coverage will be cut 15 per cent. Charges for the main types of collision insurance will drop 10 per cent downstate and five per cent in the Chicago Metropolitan area.

The lower rates will take effect on new business October 1 and on renewal policies October 15. They apply only to passenger cars.

The reduced collision premiums are on automobiles. The insured agrees will be operated at all times by persons at least 25 years of age. No change was provided in rates on cars driven by persons under 25.

Six Men Indicted
For Disorder After
Robeson Concert

White Plains, N.Y., Sept. 20.—(AP)—Six young men, including the son of a police chief, were indicted today on charges growing out of the disorder following negro singer Paul Robeson's Sept. 4 concert near Peekskill.

Joseph Lillis, Jr., 25, son of Peekskill's police chief, was indicted on a charge of malicious mischief. He is accused of throwing a rock through a window of a car driving away from the concert.

The Westchester county grand jury also indicted William Williams, 20; Vincent Dougherty, 19; David Miller, 19; and Samuel Biordi, 19, on charges of felonious malicious mischief. The youngsters, all from rural areas near Peekskill, were alleged to have overturned an empty car near the concert scene.

An indictment charging carrying concealed weapons was returned against Robert Lent, 23, accused of going to the scene with a knife strapped under each trouser leg.

Over Ten Million
Vets Apply For Insurance Refund

Washington, Sept. 20.—(AP)—More than 10,000,000 World War II veterans have applied for the special life insurance dividend to be paid next year, the Veterans Administration said today.

The application, available at all post offices and veterans' centers, still are coming in at the rate of about 200,000 a day, the agency said. Large numbers are being mailed in without signatures, it said. The agency added that indications are that about 10 per cent of the applications are improperly filled out. Many of these can be corrected by checking the files, however.

About 16,000,000 veterans will share in the $2,800,000,000 payment, which is scheduled to start in January.

For policy holders who were age 40 or less at the time of issuance, the dividend is 55 cents for each $1,000 of insurance, for each month the policy was in force before its 1948 anniversary date. The rate is lower for older policy holders, ranging downward to a minimum of 20 cents a month per $1,000 for veterans 55 and over when the policy was issued.

No Progress Reported In U.S. Efforts

Washington, Sept. 20.—(AP)—The steel industry began digging in tonight for a nationwide strike as no progress was reported in government efforts to stave off a walkout of 500,000 workers at midnight Saturday.

Bethlehem Steel Co., started closing down some of its mammoth furnaces in Buffalo, N.Y., and all other producers are expected to slow operations gradually to prevent damage to equipment which might be caused by sudden shutdown.

The CIO Steelworkers union meanwhile gave a virtual strike order in serving formal notice on the Jones and Laughlin Steel Corp., to have its Pittsburgh plant "inoperative and non-productive" by 12:01 Sunday. That is the expiration date of the 11-day truce extension granted at President Truman's request.

Ching Reports No Progress

The "no progress" report came from Cyrus S. Ching, chief of the mediation and conciliation service, who has been meeting the past two days with union and industry representatives in an effort to resolve the dispute over pension plans.

Thus far, neither side has budged on this key point in the protracted negotiations. The union contends that since it agreed to forego its demands for a pay hike to steel makers should accept the presidential fact-finding board's recommendation for a company-financed welfare fund. Steel leaders say, however, that the workers should contribute to the pension-insurance plan costing 10 cents an hour per man.

Ching said both sides had agreed to meet again tomorrow. He told reporters that CIO President Philip Murray had postponed a scheduled meeting of the union's policy committee in Pittsburgh tomorrow so as to continue with conferences here.

Ray Of Hope

Despite Ching's gloomy report there was a slight ray of hope that some peace agreement would be reached before the strike deadline.

John A. Stephens, vice president of U.S. Steel Corp., told newsmen "the fact that we are meeting tomorrow would seem to indicate we're getting somewhere."

But a CIO leader made it clear that if the owners refuse to accept the presidential board's pension plan the steelworkers then will renew their demands for a fourth round wage hike.

This top union official, who asked that his name not be used, told a reporter that if the operators reject the proposed company-financed welfare program costing 10 cents an hour and a strike develops, the union then will reinstate its original demands. These called for a 12 1/2 cents an hour pay boost, plus a pension-insurance program costing 17 1/2 cents per hour.

Keeler, Developer
Of Lie Detection,
Dies Of Heart Ills

Sturgeon Bay, Wis., Sept. 20.—(AP)—Leonard Keeler, 45, who developed the science of lie detection and became one of America's leading criminologists, died of heart disease today.

Keeler, a Chicagoan, suffered a stroke Sept. 7 while visiting at the summer home of Charles M. Wilson, director of the Wisconsin crime laboratory. He had been a patient since in Door County Memorial hospital.

Keeler's lie detectors—called the polygraph—have been used in nearly 100,000 cases since he tried out the first one successfully in 1923. Some 200 of them are now in use throughout the country.

The criminologist formerly headed the scientific crime detection laboratory at Northwestern university but was in private practice at time of his death.

25 Railroads Ask
ICC Not To Enforce
Rail-Barge Rates

Chicago, Sept. 20.—(AP)—Twenty-five railroads sued today to restrain the Interstate Commerce commission from enforcing an order directing the railroads to set up joint rail-barge rates for freight hauls on which straight rail rates now are charged.

The suit was filed in federal court. It alleged the ICC acted arbitrarily and outside its authority in issuing the order.

The ICC order would compel the railroads to cooperate with barge lines on the Mississippi and Warrior rivers. The Warrior is in Alabama. Besides seeking an injunction, the railroads also ask that a three-member court be set up to pass on the validity of the order.

THE MINTON APPOINTMENT

Elevation of Judge Sherman Minton of the U. S. Circuit Court of Appeals in Chicago to the United States Supreme Court vacancy created by the death of Justice Rutledge is a better appointment than many President Truman has made recently.

Judge Minton at least has had eight years of judicial experience. He was graduated from Indiana University Law school with highest honors and won a scholarship to Yale. His thesis on constitutional law was adjudged one of the best ever written at the university.

Judge Minton has other "qualifications" dear to Americans. He was born in a log cabin. His mother died when he was 9. He worked his way through college. He is big and athletic. He is a powerful orator.

His one term as U. S. Senator from Indiana and his few months as administrative assistant to the late President Roosevelt should provide good background for his new post.

Judge Minton, a Democrat, rose in politics along with Paul V. McNutt. His best known public service in Indiana was as public counselor for the Indiana Public Service Commission. He was credited with bringing about a statewide reduction in private utility rates amounting to about $3 million dollars a year.

While in the Senate Judge Minton served on the Interstate Commerce, Military Affairs, Pensions and Privileges and Elections committees. He was a member of the special committee that investigated utility holding companies.

Of the 30 Supreme Court justices appointed since 1900, including Minton, nine were promoted from federal or state courts. That is less than one third, more than one fourth. They were, in addition to Minton, Holmes, Day, Lurton, Pitney, Clarke, Sanford, Cardozo and Rutledge. Some of these were considered among the strongest justices in the history of the court, others aren't. Brandeis, aligned with Holmes in famous dissents, had no judicial experience.

Five others, among the 30 new justices since the turn of the century had had judicial experience some years prior to their appointment: Lamar, Van Devanter, Taft, Hughes (on the Supreme Court itself) and Vinson. Thus the total with some time on the bench before sitting on the Supreme Court has been 14 out of 29, almost one half, since 1900. It would have been 14 out of 29 if Judge Parker had not failed of confirmation by two votes in 1930.

Osaka Sam Sees The U.S.A.

By HAL BOYLE
New York.—P. Sam, a cigar smoking, saki-drinking, big wheel from Osaka, thinks an American product has only a limited future in Japan.

The product is—falseies. "If Japanese girl wear European dress," said Sam, "maybe falseies all right."

"But if she wear kimono—No! It seems the Japanese feminine ideal is a bumpless silhouette. 'Sam's' nickname he picked up here—is Isamu Saheki, 47, managing director of the Kinki Nippon Railway, the largest independently owned railroad in the orient."

To Drum Up Business
The railroad owns a chain of hotels, department stores and theaters, and Saheki is visiting America to drum up some tourist business for the land of cherry blossoms.

We had a long talk with Sam and the interpreter who learned on when his own thoughts exceeded his English—George Alexander, Tokyo traffic manager for the Northwest Airlines.

The Japanese Silk Association asked him to find out why American women prefer nylon stockings, and Sam said:

"I feel that silk stockings are more flattering to women's legs than nylon."

Thoroughly broad-minded as well as keen-eyed, he gestured with his hands as if outlining a barrel, and remarked: "American women beautiful—very shapely. All have originality in dressing."

Sam made a trip on the subway, but it failed to give him any new ideas on how to sardine more passengers onto his own railway. It already carries from 1,000,000 to 2,000,000 commuters daily. He does plan, however, to put on some cute girl hostesses. They'll peddle tea.

A big league baseball game gave him his biggest thrill of the tour to Sam, who has the yen to buy a team for himself sometime. He was disappointed at the small crowd—only about 40,000.

"In Japan, big games draw 100,000," he said. The thing that impressed him most was that the crowd got up voluntarily at the sound of the national anthem—"nobody had to give order"—and he was amazed at the lack of shoving.

What did America have that would be helpful to Japan?

Lots Of Big Things

"There lot of very big things here that wouldn't fit small country like Japan," Sam mused. But he thought there was room for automatic vending machines—including pinballers. And he felt Japan could adopt a higher respect for women, a thing that struck him about the United States.

"In Japan woman walks behind," he said. And what Japan custom did he think America might follow to its advantage?

Sam thought and thought.

"Well, Japanese men very patient under bad luck," he said, and—his face became bland and innocent—"Japanese women very, very faithful to their menfolk."

Owner Of Private Mason City Zoo Dies Of Injuries

Springfield, Ill., Sept. 20.—(P.)—Dr. Manley B. Mathers, 60, veterinarian and owner of a private zoo in Mason City, died yesterday in St. John's hospital from injuries suffered in a fall a week ago.

The accident occurred while he was inspecting a new garage. He fell from a catwalk, fracturing his skull.

Dr. Mathers started the zoo in 1936. His collection included 12 to 15 lions, six tigers, African water buffalo and other animals. He sold many animals to public zoos and animal trainers.

The Mathers zoo, visited daily by tourists, is located a mile north of Mason City.

Former and new members of the First Baptist church choir will begin rehearsals on Thursday, Sept. 22, at the First Baptist church at 7 p. m.

Noel Rousey will direct the choir and Miss Mahala McGeehee will serve as accompanist.

The choir under the direction of Mr. Rousey was most successful in preparing and rendering many sacred compositions for the church services during the past year. Additional equipment will make it possible this year for continued growth and development.

All young people are welcome to join the choir.

Social Events

Mrs. Hattie German Entertains WSCS

The W.S.C.S. of the Lynnville Methodist church met at the home of Mrs. Hattie German, with Mrs. Birdie Kitchen and Mrs. Lee Myers as assistant hostesses.

The meeting was presided over by the president Mrs. Montie Wells.

Mrs. Esther Blair had the devotions, and Mrs. Opal Wilson the lesson.

Plans were made to serve lunch at the Joseph Lawless sale, with Mrs. Helen Coates in charge of the arrangements.

The October meeting will be held at the home of Mrs. Jessie Gibbs.

ASSISTS PASTOR

RONALD ALLIN

Rev. Lewis N. Raymond, minister of the State Street Presbyterian church, announced Tuesday that Ronald Allin is to be the new youth adviser and pastoral assistant of the church. Mr. Allin will begin his work next Sunday within the local church program.

An upperclassman in Illinois College, Mr. Allin is a ministerial student who plans to enter McCormick Seminary upon graduation. The son of a Presbyterian minister, the Rev. Cecil Allin who formerly served the church at White Hall, Mr. Allin now lists Hamilton, Ill., as his home.

In addition to his activities within the church, Mr. Allin is a member of the Illinois College band and choir and a member of Phi Alpha Literary society. His main responsibilities will be with the youth work of the church as well as assisting the minister in the services of the church.

Rita Sullivan, Richard K. King Wed In Arkansas

Miss Rita Jean Sullivan, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. John R. Sullivan, 624 Caldwell street, and Richard K. King, son of Mrs. Lella King of White Hall, were married at Piget, Ark., on Sunday, Sept. 18.

Mrs. King, a graduate of the Roodhouse high school, class of 1949, has been employed at Warg's Walgreen Apocost for the past several months. Her husband, a graduate of White Hall high school, served in the navy, spending three years active duty in the South Pacific. He is a junior at Shurtleff college, Alton, and plans to continue his studies.

The couple will reside in Alton.

DO THREE JOBS AT ONCE WITH THE OLIVER SUPERIOR NO. 26 DRILL

OLIVER SUPERIOR

HERE'S a way to save time and seed . . . get better stands and bigger yields—all in one operation.

With the Oliver Superior 26 Drill you can fertilize the crop as you plant it. Include the grass seed attachment, and you can sow soil-building legumes at the same time.

You have a choice of 13 different seeding rates for small grains—13 for large seeds such as soybeans . . . plus a choice of 90 different fertilizer distribution rates!

No bunching or skipping! The Double Run Force Feed measures out the grain kernel by kernel. Seed is deposited at identical depths in every furrow. Germination is quicker . . . growth and maturity are uniform.

Stop in next time you drive by. We'll be glad to give you complete information on the many models of Oliver drills and planters that are made.

Chandlerville High School Adds New Business Course
Chandlerville—A new course has been added to the curriculum of the Chandlerville high school. The new course, called office practice, gives commercial students an opportunity to obtain actual business experience.

The students compile reports, write business letters, do filing and office routine under the supervision of the commercial instructor, John Hannum.

Those who have been assigned duties include Barbara Kennedy, Phyllis Kennedy, Mary Morris, Marjorie Morris, Patricia Reed, Beverly Murphy, Frank Blair, Homer Hunt, Hannah Marie Blair, Eva Lou Blair, Helen Armstrong, Jean Hitchell, Priscilla Anderson, Jean Grimes and Donald Cook.

The Loyal Worker's Sunday school class of the Methodist church will meet Wednesday afternoon at the home of Mrs. Mae Nollsch. The assistant hostess will be Mrs. Anna Saizman.

White Hall Girl Feted At Shower
White Hall — A miscellaneous shower was given in honor of Miss Dolores Hawk, who will become the bride of Dean Fair on Saturday, Sept. 24, at 1 o'clock at the First Christian church.

Thirty-five guests attended the shower, with Mrs. Donald Hawk serving as hostess, assisted by Mrs. Doris Indelicateo, Mrs. Eugene McCarthy and Mrs. Stanford Beardsone assisted in serving refreshments. Miss Hawk and Mr. Fair are planning a short trip after their wedding and will be at home to their friends upon their return at 252 North Main street.

"LAYOFF," BUT NO STRIKE—Three young train enthusiasts, lured to a park in Kansas City by thoughts of a ride on the miniature train, found the tracks in place, but that's about all. Although the insignia on the station bore the name of the strike-bound Missouri-Pacific lines, that wasn't the cause of the "layoff." The traffic tie-up is a seasonal one—most of the passengers have to chug back to school come September so the train just shuts down for the winter.

Campaign For National Guard Recruits Opens

More than three hundred units of the Illinois National Guard in ninety communities through the State jumped off on "R-Day" Monday, Sept. 19, on a two month recruiting drive featuring a champion recruiter's contest, Major General Joseph A. Teece, the commanding general, has announced.

Goal of the State "Steeplechase" campaign is to bring as many units as possible up to full authorized strength before the national ceiling of 400,000 is reached and further recruiting halted.

A major member of the national defense team, the National Guard has been assigned the vital M-Day mission of immediate action against an invading aggressor. At full

"Y" Membership Extended To Jr. High Students

Membership in the Y.M.C.A. Youth Center will be extended to students of junior high school age, according to a decision made Monday night at a joint meeting of the parents committee and junior high representatives.

Student enrollment will be held next Monday night at the junior high get-together at the Youth Center. Plans are being made to secure a student orchestra to provide music for dancing.

The students registered for instructions in dancing and photography Monday night. More than 100 youngsters indicated interest in social dancing instructions. Ten youngsters signed up for instructions in photography.

Folk dancing was directed by Willard Cody. A social period followed, after which the meeting was held.

Members of the parents committee for September are Mr. and Mrs. John Sommers, Mr. and Mrs. Allen Kelly, Mr. and Mrs. Willard Cody and Mr. and Mrs. Jack Thomas.

The junior high representatives are Sandra Bonjean, Gerry Smith, Bradley Blodgett, Bruce Barter, Ann Naranick, Janet Omundson, Bob Scott and Joe Sommers.

BAPTISMAL SERVICE

Frederick Martin Nergenh, son of Mr. and Mrs. Paul E. Nergenh of Chapin, was baptized Sunday morning in St. Paul's Lutheran church of Chapin. The Rev. Harry A. Timm officiated. The sponsors are Miss Marjorie Nergenh and Louis Werries.

Nightly Services Begin Wednesday At Ashland Church

Ashland — Beginning Wednesday night Sept. 21, and continuing each night through Sept. 23, a ten-day evangelistic campaign will be held at the local Baptist church. Rev. Miller Mikell, preacher and choir artist, will give an illustrated sermon each night. All services will begin at 7:30 p. m.

Those from here who attended the Danenberger family reunion held Sunday, Sept. 18 at the home of Mr. and Mrs. S. D. Danenberger, Jr. in Normal were Mrs. S. D. Danenberger, Sr. Mr. and Mrs. Wm. E. East and children, Dianne and Dennis, Tonia Danenberger and Mr. and Mrs. Richard Danenberger and three children, Marietta and Patricia Danenberger.

Representative Clyde A. Roberts of the Illinois congressional assembly was a guest last week in the L. D. Lewis home. Miss Kay Lewis served as Mr. Roberts' assistant for several years during his political campaign.

Hay Ride Planned By Hi-Y Members

Plans for a hay ride and wiene-roast were made by members of the Hi-Y at their first meeting of the new school year, held Monday night at the Y.M.C.A. Youth Center.

The committee appointed for this event is comprised of Charles Cannon, Charles Grant, Gerry Moore and Fred Seymour.

The meeting was presided over by Ken Retzer, acting in the absence of the president, Don Smith.

Ashland Graduates Receive Honors While At College

Ashland — Raymond S. Ranes, principal of the local high school, has received word that two of the graduates of 1948 achieved scholastic honors in their freshman year at college.

Joanne Ranes, who was salutatorian of the class, attained a high rating at Eastern Illinois State college, while Vincent Beggs, class valedictorian, received honors at Illinois Wesleyan university.

The local high school has an enrollment of 117 students, which is the largest in several years.

The freshmen class has the largest number of students, with 35 on the roll. Next are the sophomores with 29, with the juniors following with 28. The senior class has 25 students. Jack Leahy entertained about 50 students at a wiener roast and hayride Thursday night.

Following the wiener roast, the group boarded the hayracks and went for a cool 30-mile ride.

WHITE HALL

White Hall—Miss Irene Livingston left Thursday for Normal, where she will resume her studies at Illinois State Normal university.

James E. Cheatham left this week for Des Moines, Ia., where he will enter his second year as student in the Drake Law school.

Bennett Roodhouse, son of Mr. and Mrs. Henry Roodhouse, has enrolled as a freshman at the University of Illinois.

Mrs. Bertha Kirgan, who for the past several months has been employed at Green Lake, Wis., returned home for a few days visit and is now in Normal, where she will serve as house parent at the Soldiers and Sailors Home.

Rev. T. B. Lugg of Evanston, joined his wife here on Thursday and they left to attend a meeting of district superintendents at Pere Marquette park. Mrs. Lugg visited relatives here for about a week before being joined by Rev. Lugg.

Mr. and Mrs. Henry Giller of Montebello, Calif., have returned home after a visit here with his mother, Mrs. Charles H. Giller.

Betty Heitbrink Tells Of Trip To East Bay Camp

Meredosia—The Future Homemakers Chapter of the high school held its second meeting Friday afternoon. The highlight of the program was a talk by the chapter president, Betty Heitbrink, on her experiences as delegate at East Bay camp near Bloomington, this summer. At the close of the meeting, group songs were sung, and several pictures were taken of the officers and members. The chapter mother, Mrs. James Major, was a guest.

On Thursday night, a good following of sports fans journeyed with the high school six-man football team to Waverly, where they were given quite a thrill, watching the initial game of the season, played between Franklin and Meredith.

Mr. and Mrs. George Gerard and daughter Suzanne of Pekin, were Sunday guests at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Glen Hobbs and family.

Mrs. Louella Hildebrand left Saturday for an extended visit in St. Louis, Missouri, with her sister, Mrs. J. Z. Campbell, who is ill.

Wilbur E. Boyd, of Monticello, Iowa, spent the weekend in Meredith, attending to business matters.

The Intermediate Girl Scouts held their regular meeting Friday afternoon at the high school. Final plans were completed for the old-fashioned box supper to be held the evening of September 23. After the business meeting, games were played by the group, followed by refreshments. It was decided to change the regular meeting time to each Friday evening at seven o'clock.

Mr. and Mrs. Everett Likes journeyed to Godfrey, Ill., Sunday, and from there, accompanied by Mr. and Mrs. Harry Orrill and children, visited the zoo at other points of interest at Forest Park in St. Louis.

SOME PAKISTAN MUSLIMS LOOK TO U.S.S.R.

Karachi, Pakistan—(AP)—A Pakistan-Soviet cultural association has been formed here to "foster close cultural and good-neighbourly relations between the peoples of the two countries." The head of the association said recently that "on the soil of the U.S.S.R. lives one of the largest blocks of Muslim peoples in the world, with some of the greatest treasures of Muslim culture."

Trot Line Fishing In Lake To Be Requested
The Jacksonville Sportsmen's club went on record Monday night as favoring a change in fishing regulations which would permit the use of trot lines in Lake Jacksonville.

The sportsmen also voted to petition the city council to set off a portion at the west end of the lake as a rest area for waterfowl. This action would improve shooting conditions in other sections of the lake, the Sportsmen's club believes.

Both recommendations were voted on advice of the Illinois Department of Conservation which has made a survey of hunting and fishing conditions at the lake. The club is expected to take up the subjects with the council within a short time.

By permitting the use of trot lines, conservation officials have pointed out, large numbers of small catfish and rough fish would be removed. The lake is believed to be overstocked with smaller fish, which hinders development of all fish in the lake.

The club decided to work out a code of conduct between sportsmen and property owners, to be announced before the hunting season. A set of safety regulations also will be prepared.

Plans were announced for an oyster supper at the next meeting to be held on the last Monday in October, to which the Meredosia Sportsmen's club and Jacksonville Rifle club members will be invited. The promotion of inter-club trap shoots was discussed.

Leo Fuchs, vice president, presided at the monthly meeting of sportsmen at the Amvet hall on West State street.

Garden Club Will Hear Lecture By Mrs. Newcomb
The Morgan County Garden club has accepted an invitation of Mrs. Warner H. Newcomb to meet on the south terrace of her garden at 409 Woodland Place, on Saturday afternoon, Sept. 24, at 2 o'clock. An illustrated lecture will be given by Mrs. Newcomb on "Pottery and Its Use in Flower Arrangement."

Members will want to take advantage of this opportunity to visit the Newcomb garden and hear Mrs. Newcomb, whose interesting hobby has developed through several years of study. Some of her collection of 150 pieces, hand done by contemporary North American potters, will be on display and will be used to illustrate points in discussion. Garden club members who are making a special study of flower arrangement this year will find this lecture quite helpful.

THE DOCTOR SAYS Severe Phobias Indicate Mental Disease Present

By Edwin P. Jordan, M.D.
Written for NEA Service

Fear is a strange thing. Probably everyone who has any sense has been frightened sometime. This is normal. There are some people, however, who live in constant fear of something which does not exist or is only a slight danger. This is called a phobia or obsession. Such fears may have no basis in past experience and are just "there." At other times the phobia may have come from some fright which occurred in childhood and has been entirely forgotten.

There are many different kinds of fears and I hesitate to mention any of them "for fear" someone might think of a new phobia for the first time. There is one fear called bathophobia, which really means fear of great depths. If it really meant the way it sounded, it would be very common among children!

Another fear is called acrophobia, which is fear of great heights. This seems to be quite common—probably so much so that it is almost "normal."

Many Different Kinds

There are other phobias with long and astonishing names and even stranger meanings. At the risk of making this sound like a list, a few are: apiphobia—fear of bees; automyphobia—fear of being dirty; bibliophobia—dislike of books; cheirophobia—fear of gaiety; and necrophobia, or fear of death. Obviously the last is fear which nearly everyone shares. It is a true phobia only when a person thinks about death almost constantly.

Should anything be done about these abnormal fears? The answer is yes, if possible. Being afraid of something is abnormal only when it is excessive and there is no good reason for that fear.

Real phobias make the victim miserable and can completely dominate their lives and point of view. Even when the nature of fear seems humorous to the outsider, it is a constant source of annoyance to the person involved and may cause a great deal of mental distress.

Note: Dr. Jordan is unable to answer individual questions from readers. However, each day he will answer one of the most frequently asked questions in his column.

SEES WORLD'S GRASSLAND IN BAD SHAPE

Berkeley, Calif.—(P)—The earth's land area is 30 per cent grassland, says Dr. Arthur W. Sampson, University of California professor of forestry. And much of this area has been devastated by poor grazing practices, he says.

He pictures large parts of Africa, Spain, Greece, India and Palestine as wrecked by such practices. In the United States he estimates that existing range is producing at only 52 per cent of its original capacity and that 55 per cent of the range has less than half of its former capacity.

Good range should have a dense stand of perennial grass, he says.

New York Stock Market

New York, Sept. 20. —(AP)—The stock market developed a soggy price undertone today.

In an orderly retreat leading issues lost fractions to more than a point. There were no signs of an attempt to rally on the way down.

Gold stocks displayed independent strength, as they did yesterday, a couple rising points or more.

Lower prices were paid for U. S. Steel, General Motors, Chrysler, Studebaker, Sears Roebuck and Schenley.

Higher, and some at the top prices of the year, were Homestake Mining, Dome Mines, Nations, and South American Gold and Platinum.

Railway issues tended lower in the bond market.

Journal Courier Plant Toured By 200 H.S. Pupils

Two hundred Jacksonville High school sophomores are getting a good working knowledge of how newspapers are produced by a series of inspection tours of the Journal Courier plant this week. Nine classes are participating in the tours over a three day period.

English classes taught by Misses Ann Jones, Helen Richards and Fernene Goodin are studying newspaper appreciation at present, and are supplementing their textbook study with visits to the Journal Courier.

They are shown the Associated Press automatic printers, which bring in news from all over the nation and the globe; the composing room with its battery of linotypes, matrix crusher, and makeup tables; stereotype room with its metal pot, casting machine and other interesting equipment, and the big Duplex press which prints 13,866 copies of the newspapers each day.

The first classes toured the plant Monday afternoon, followed by others Tuesday and the remaining classes will make the trip Wednesday.

Willie Pep Retains Title; Stops Eddie Compo In 7th Round

Waterbury, Conn., Sept. 20.—(P)—Willie Pep, calling his shots like a champion should against an old sparring partner, stopped Eddie Compo of New Haven, tonight, in 41 seconds of the seventh round to successfully defend his world featherweight crown at Municipal Stadium.

Referee Bill Conway halted the uneven contest at the request of Compo's chief second, Goldie Goldfarb.

The crafty Pep, risking his crown for the first time since he recaptured it from Sandy Saddler last February, was in complete command at all times.

A crowd of 10,722 paid a gross of $39,931 to see the action.

Illini Footballers To Make '49 Debut Against Iowa State

Champaign, Ill.—Illinois opens its sixteenth season of intercollegiate football at 1:30 p.m. Saturday facing Iowa State of the Big Seven Conference, a team which Scout Leo Johnson rates as "surprisingly strong."

Johnson watched the Cyclones rout Dubuque 64 to 0 in their opener last Saturday and he predicts an "interesting" battle for debut of Coach Ray Eliot's 1949 Illini.

"Iowa State has a fine field general in Don Ferguson, good passing from Bill Weeks, and overall backfield speed which will more than match Illinois," Johnson said.

"Coach Abe Stuber has brought his team along very fast and as a unit Iowa State is well advanced for this stage of the year. The Cyclone attack is well conceived and although Dubuque didn't test the defense to any great extent, the line appeared to be quick and tough."

With this report in mind, Eliot planned emphasis on defense in drills of his Illini candidates this week. He definitely was not impressed by his team's showing in a 38-0 defeat of the freshmen.

"We're two full weeks of double drills away from the stage of development we had hoped to achieve by this time," Eliot said. "But, with the opener this Saturday, we have to cut down to single drills and taper off beginning Wednesday so the squad will be fresh for Iowa State."

The victory safeguarded the Yanks' healthy three game lead over the second place Boston Red Sox. The Red Sox eliminated the defending world champion Cleveland Indians from contention with a 5-2 triumph.

Allie Reynolds and his shadow, Joe Page, turned back the Pale Hose on seven successive batters with Reynolds gaining credit for his 17th victory compared to five defeats.

Kuzava's wildness proved his downfall. Kuzava passed ten and two of the free tickets resulted in runs. Reynolds left for a pinch-hitter in the seventh and Page, making his 55th appearance, stopped the Sox on one hit over the final two rounds.

The White Sox knocked Reynolds for their lone run in the second on Floyd Baker's single, sacrifice and Luke Appling's single to right.

Chicago ..... 001 000 000—1 7
New York ..... 020 000 103—3 0

Kuzava and Malone: Reynolds, Page (8) and Berra. WP—Reynolds.

Also around the old loop, a new darkness appeared as new coach Fred Bradshaw tutored his Auburn Trojans to a surprise 13-6 victory over Petersburg, while the pressason favorites, Nokomis crew was taking it on the chin against one of the better teams in the state—Stanton 27-6.

It is doubtful if Coach Bill Lewis will ever forget the name of Dean Cochran, as the fleetfooted halfback ran up six touchdowns to give Greenfield of the Valley loop a 39-12 win over Lewis' Redbirds of Girard.

St. James opened their home season on Sunday afternoon, but that was all they did since the Trademans lost to St. Teresa of Decatur 27-0.

This week Waverly gets a taste of what to expect from Virden Thursday night as they play hosts to the Kincaid Ponies and then on Friday night Virden can compare themselves to Nokomis. They will try their luck against Stanton.

Other games find St. James playing hosts to Girard in the conference opener in Friday, and Auburn will be in Illinois the same night.

SIDELIGHTS—Roodhouse got a preview of what to expect from Pittsfield, when they tangle with the Pike county crew, at Waverly.

The reason is that Coach Carroll Lowe of Waverly, who was Glenn Smith's assistant at Pittsfield last year, employed plays similar to those used by the Sauklee Indians.

The conference has asked two new schools into the current eight team loop. Pawnee will re-enter the basketball race and Northwestern will come in all sports but it will take a few years for the schools to become bonafide members due to schedule problems.

BACKS INTO QUEEN MARY
London, Sept. 20.—(P)—A young woman learning to drive backed her car into Queen Mother Mary's black Daimler sedan, at a traffic light to-day. No one was hurt. The 82-year-old Queen Mary was being driven by her chauffeur.

Norway, which had been united with Denmark and Sweden in 1385, declared its independence in 1914 but the union of Norway and Sweden was not finally dissolved until 1905.

Jerseyville—The Jerseyville Panthers grid machine will entertain a strong Benld crew in a benefit game Friday night. The contest will get underway at 8 o'clock (D.S.T.) and all funds will go to build a new athletic field at Jerseyville.

Plans call for a new football field with better lighting. A track which will circle the field and a combination softball, baseball diamond with its own lighting system.

Over one thousand advance tickets have been sold for the benefit game. Another two thousand dollars in donations from Jerseyville sports boosters have been received. The largest crowd in school history attended the Roxana-Jerseyville tussle Friday night which saw the Panthers drop a narrow 21-14 decision in the final minutes. Despite defeat the Panthers looked good as they bottled up the running of Walt Steffen, the leading scorer in the state last year.

The Benld game looks like a gandy. The Indians lost a heart-breaking 7-6 battle to an always formidable Pana club in their '49 opener last week.

Jerseyville—The Jerseyville Panthers grid machine will entertain a strong Benld crew in a benefit game Friday night. The contest will get underway at 8 o'clock (D.S.T.) and all funds will go to build a new athletic field at Jerseyville.

Plans call for a new football field with better lighting. A track which will circle the field and a combination softball, baseball diamond with its own lighting system.

Over one thousand advance tickets have been sold for the benefit game. Another two thousand dollars in donations from Jerseyville sports boosters have been received. The largest crowd in school history attended the Roxana-Jerseyville tussle Friday night which saw the Panthers drop a narrow 21-14 decision in the final minutes. Despite defeat the Panthers looked good as they bottled up the running of Walt Steffen, the leading scorer in the state last year.

The Benld game looks like a gandy. The Indians lost a heart-breaking 7-6 battle to an always formidable Pana club in their '49 opener last week.

Cards, Dodgers Start Vital Series Today

St. Louis, Sept. 20.—(P)—Thousands of persons crowded into St. Louis tonight for the final all-important series between the National League-leading St. Louis Cardinals and their east coast rivals, the Brooklyn Dodgers.

The two clubs have three games on the schedule—one tomorrow afternoon (1:30 p.m., EST), another tomorrow night (8:30 p.m., EST) and the final contest Thursday night (8:30 p.m., EST).

Close to 100,000 persons are expected to pack Sportsman's park for the three games.

The Redbirds will make every effort to take the first one because a victory there will mean they remain in the top spot, regardless of the outcome of the others.

A clean sweep by the Redbirds wouldn't mean the pennant, but it wouldn't leave much chance for a Brooklyn rebound.

Cards Hold Narrow Lead
The Cards held to their game and a half lead with a 7 to 5 triumph over the Philadelphia Phillies while the Brooks downed the Chicago Cubs 5 to 0 today.

Max Lanier is slated to face Brooklyn's Don Newcombe in the afternoon contest. It probably will be Harry Brecheen against Preacher Roe in the nighter.

The weather prediction is for fair tomorrow with the afternoon high in the 80's.

The afternoon game is the result of a heavy rain the last time the two clubs met in St. Louis. The rain came just before game time. They played, however, starting over an hour and a half late. Then the game went up to the 12:50 a.m. league deadline in a tie, making a playoff necessary.

Also Hitting Battle
The series will have further meaning for two of the players. Jackie Robinson, the Dodgers' Negro star infielder is leading the league in hitting with a .346 batting average.

ISD, still following the daylight policy of P. K. Wrigley's Chicago Cubs, will stick with the sun-lit sport. Art Yates' Tigers open against Carrollton's Hawks here Saturday afternoon.

The biggest worry, that of finding a punter, has been erased from Yates' mind. He accidentally spotted Irvin Carlistedt, husky end, booting the ball during a practice session this week and, after a brief looking-over, gave him the chore. "Carlistedt's punts aren't beautiful spiraling drives, but they boom out there for 40 and 50 yards and that's all I can ask," said the ISD coach.

Bob Kraushaar's Crimson squad who became the first local grid-iron crew to go under fire when they bumped into Pittsfield last week, travel to Winchester Friday evening still nursing the 20-0 licking suffered in Sauklee hands. Johnny Walker, injured in the Pittsfield tangle, isn't counted on to see much action. He will probably be replaced at left half by Billy Sabatini who gave a good account of himself against the Sauklee band.

Connie Hanley, one time Routt basketball stalwart, has enrolled at Quincy college. Hanley spent his first two college years at Tulane where he played on the Green Wave varsity that was named among the nation's hardwood leaders two-years running.

Brownies Wallop Washington 15-6
Washington, Sept. 20.—(P)—Roy Sievers contributed his 15th homer, two doubles and a single tonight as the St. Louis Browns mauled Washington, 15-6. Six Washington pitchers yielded 14 bases on balls and 12 hits as Ned Garver posted his 11th victory after replacing Joe Ostrowski in the second inning.

Diz Sutherland, former Washington cab driver, issued six walks and five runs before being belted out in the second inning.

The Senators bounced back with four runs off Ostrowski in the second inning, with Sam Mele belting a 2-run homer, but the Browns continued their assault on five pitchers who followed Sutherland.

Someone to Love

Copyright, 1949, NEA SERVICE, INC.

By IRENE LONNEN ERNHART

THE STORY: Jenny Polack meets Tod Duncan on his return from a hospital, where he was treated for a football injury. To break the news that his fiancée, Liz, has broken with him, he tells her that he is a close friend of Tod's. When Tod hears the news, he believes at first that Jenny is kidding. Jenny thinks that Tod will always hate her for having told him the news.

II

THE least he could do was buy Jenny a drink, Tod said, so they stopped at a small bar near the station. It was dimly lit and almost empty. The usual juke box played softly and monotonously from a corner.

While Jenny toyed with a cocktail, sipping it slowly and making it last, Tod downed three drinks in quick succession.

"You look cute, Jenny. I like that little hat with the whatamacallit tied under your chin." He grinned at her amiably, signalled the waitress for another drink, and continued to talk, his voice blurred ever so slightly now. "We used to have some pretty good times together before I ever met Liz, didn't we, Jenny?" Jenny nodded. She knew he was tight, but nonetheless it pleased her that he recalled how things used to be between them.

"Remember when you and I and your Pop used to go out Sundays to the shack and fish all day, and go swimming?"

She nodded. Quick tears sprang into her eyes for no reason at all. "Remember the time, Jenny, we rented a boat and went down river fishing and I forgot to tie the boat?"

"And the current took it off, and we had to walk all the way back," Jenny put in laughing, "and we thought we were going to have to pay for the boat!"

"Yeah, but they found it later so we didn't have to pay after all." He moved his glass in circles on the table, reflectively. And then he looked up and said, "How is Pop, anyhow?"

Jenny swallowed and looked down in silence for a moment, and then she said, "Pop's dead, Tod. I thought you knew."

"Oh. Sorry."

THE waitress brought his drink, and he got out his billfold, paid her, and when she was gone he said, "I do remember now reading about it in the paper. He was a good scout, Jenny. I bet you miss him."

Jenny nodded, and finished her cocktail in one gulp. "Let's go out to the shack again sometime, when the weather gets nice, Jenn," he said eagerly. "I'd like to, wouldn't you? We could take a lunch and some beer, and go swimming. It's been a long time since I've done anything like that. It would seem like old times."

"Let's do," Jenny answered. She felt wildly and unreasonably happy now. Tod wanted to see her again.

They went out of the bar into the fresh air. It had stopped snowing now, but the wind was blowing sharp and cold. Tod put her into the cab, which was still waiting. He paid the driver and then said, "I'll see you again soon, Jenny. We'll go fishing 'too, won't we?"

Jenny nodded her head, smiling at him, as the cab took off from the curb. She told the driver to take her to the shop instead of home because it wasn't five yet.

Nina took one look at her sparkling eyes as she came into the shop and exclaimed, "Oh, so everything went off all right! Maybe he wasn't so much in love with that high-hat Liz Conover after all, Jenny. You can't tell."

The girls all crowded around, asking what he had said and all about

"We used to have some pretty good times together before I ever met Liz, didn't we, Jenny?" Tod asked.

the meeting. Jenny put them off with a laughing retort of some sort. It was only in Nina whom she confided what had really happened.

Nina looked thoughtful. "I bet he phones you tomorrow."

JENNY didn't answer. Already she was wondering whether she'd buy those new checked slacks that had just come in or some plain brown ones she'd been admiring for some time. But it was silly to think of what she'd wear out to the shack, since it wouldn't be warm enough to go out there for another month at least. A new dressy suit would be more important, that cunning little chartruese wool number with the matching satin blouse. The color flattered her.

"Tod loved my hat," she told Nina, as she untied the tulle ribbons from under her chin. "It does just suit you."

"Do you honestly think he'll call me tomorrow, Nina?" She stared wistfully at her reflection in the long mirror in the back room of the shop. The cocktail was beginning to wear off now, and with it some of the elation she had felt when she left Tod.

"Sure," Nina replied. But her confidence was misplaced, for Tod didn't phone the next day. Weeks went by and she didn't hear from him. Every time the phone rang in the shop, or at home in the shabby little house on Catalpa Street, Jenny's heart plunged. But no call came from Tod.

March slid into April. The new suit hung in the closet unworn, and regretted now as a pure extravagance. Nina suggested she bring it back to the shop. "Max'll let you bring it back. He's a good egg about things like that."

Max owned the shop. Even he noticed Jenny's nervous preoccupation and scolded her about it. "What's the matter, fenny," he asked. "You go around the shop looking like the crack of doom! I like my models to look happy. It's better business."

"I'm sorry Max, I've been looking gloomy."

"It's some man, I suppose." Max's shrewd black eyes didn't miss a thing. He saw the faint flush that brushed Jenny's cheeks, and then one day she saw Tod again, quite unexpectedly.

Local Elks Club To Launch Week Of Activity Today

Starting today, officers of B.P.O.E. local Elks club launch a week of activities which will include the annual fall round-up for Elks and their wives Saturday afternoon and evening in the club rooms.

Some five hundred Elks and their wives are expected to participate in this program, unique this year because this will be the first year that women have been invited to an affair of this kind.

Tonight, Wilford Queen, the Exalted Ruler, will escort his fellow officers to Springfield to be guests of the Elks of that city in a special initiation featured by work of the Peoria Elks drill team.

During Saturday night's program in the local lodge, the Elks veterans commission will preside over a show to be given especially for the disabled veterans in the State hospital. The public is invited to see this show for the veterans at the hospital.

Wednesday, Sept. 28, Elks officers will initiate a class of 30 in their own lodge room and the officers of Springfield Elks lodge will preside over the ceremonies.

Ruler of the local Elks lodge also announced that final plans are shaping up for the first annual convention of Elks in the west central district, this event to be held in Peoria under date of October 22 at the Pere Marquette Hotel.

Past Exalted Ruler Edward J. Flynn who was elected vice-president of the district at the state convention held in Quincy last May, will preside over the Peoria session.

Local Legion Post Accepts Six New Members Tuesday

Six veterans were received into membership last night when the Jacksonville post, American Legion, held its regular meeting at the Legion Home. Accepted through reinstatement, transfer or new application were Gordon Leon Campbell, Marvin L. Martin, Benjamin Lane, Jr., Paul Mapes, George Russell Gilmore and Paul S. Barnes.

Commander Glenn Spencer presided. He announced that checks would be presented to the top membership getters at the next meeting on Oct. 4, when the annual installation of officers will be held.

Senior Vice Commander William Cochran urged all members to pay their dues prior to Oct. 1. Cards received by the national headquarters after that date are subject to a 25 cent penalty.

The post concurred in the recommendations of the board of directors and executive committee that another emorgasbord party for members, their wives or lady friends be held at the Legion Home on Oct. 1.

The post voted to give an Early Bird dinner for those members paying their 1950 dues prior to Nov. 11. This year's dinner, however, will not be as elaborate as last year's affair, the post stipulated.

Sick call revealed that H. V. (Pat) Knowles and Elmer Wislen are sick at home. Porter Johnson is in St. John's hospital. Springfield, and Sterling Collins is improving at Jefferson Barracks hospital.

Richard Dix, Star Of Movies For 25 Years, Dies At 54

Hollywood Sept. 20.—(P)—Richard Dix who spanned the shift from silent films to talkies with rare success died today of heart trouble. He was 54.

Dix was in pictures for more than a quarter of a century. His late years were spent on a luxurious ranch in Topanga canyon—where he refused to have a telephone—with his wife, the former actress Virginia Webster, and their three children, twins Richard and Robert, 13, and daughter Sue, 6.

He had suffered several heart attacks in recent years, spending months in a sanitarium after one of them. On Aug. 10, he was taken from a westbound train in Chicago, after a trip to Europe. Later he was flown here for treatment, but his weak heart wasn't equal to the strain.

Born Ernest Carlton Brimmer in St. Paul, Minn., July 18, 1895, he entered the University of Minnesota medical school to study surgery. But he didn't like it and quit to work in a bank. Later he studied at Northwestern university night classes.

He made 218 pictures in all, topped by such epics as the silent "Vanishing American" and the talkie, "Cimarron."

Report Over 200 Catholic Priests Arrested By Czechs

Prague, Czechoslovakia, Sept. 20.—(P)—Church sources reported to-night more than 200 Roman Catholic priests and nuns have been arrested in an intensified drive to force the church to bow to Czechoslovak government controls.

At the same time the Czechoslovak Communist party, the power behind the government, announced a purge of its membership which will reduce the card-holders to those who can pass certain ideological tests.

The party ordered that all the nation's communists, totaling about 2,300,000, attend special study courses in Marx-Leninism and Stalinism to be held at least twice monthly from Nov. 1 until next June. Only those who qualify will remain party members. It will be the party's second purge in a year.

IC Asks To Issue Mortgage Bonds

Washington, Sept. 20.—(P)—The Illinois Central railroad company today asked Interstate Commerce Commission authority to issue $52,200,000 of three and 7 percent consolidated mortgage bonds.

The issue would carry out a previously announced plan of the company to offer the consolidated bonds in exchange for $52,200,000 of presently outstanding bonds due to maturity between 1951 and 1955.

The outstanding bonds carry various interest rates ranging from 3 and 1/2 to 5 percent and adjustments to take care of these rates would be made to the various maturity dates. The consolidated mortgage bonds would be dated to mature between 1974 and 1979.

INCOME TAX MAN GETS TWO $100 BILLS FROM CONSCIENCE STRICKEN

Chicago, Sept. 20.—(P)—Collector of Internal Revenue John T. Jarecki received an envelope postmarked Rockford, Ill., today, containing two $100 bills and this note:

"We hereby enclose $200 which belongs to the U. S. treasury as income tax money. A very small amount at first it accumulated to above sum by carelessness on our part. In order to remain at peace with God we must take this step to reimburse."

The typewritten signature was "Conscience Stricken."

The Statue of Freedom atop the Capitol dome in Washington, D. C., weighs 14,985 pounds and cost about $23,700.

Loop Paving Project Slows City's Traffic

East and West State streets, two of the city's principal arteries of traffic, felt the tightening grip of construction work Tuesday as workmen on the loop paving project cut into the pavements, making trenches over which automobiles could not pass.

East State street at East street was completely blocked and closed to traffic during most of the day and carried only one-way traffic during the night. West State street was only partially barricaded at West street, where a ditch extended halfway across the street, making one-way traffic necessary.

A 12 foot trench was dug across East State street near the Illinois hotel, to permit the laying of the storm sewer. Sangamo Construction Co. officials said every effort would be made to complete the job at that point in one day, so that the hole could be filled in and the street opened again.

Place Concrete Forms Construction work has extended over the entire loop district, which will be repaved after the storm sewer is laid and water and gas connections are completed. Forms for concrete have already been put into position on East Morgan street, but the late arrival of reinforcing steel is causing some delay.

Deep ditches cross and parallel most of the loop streets. Sidewalks are cracked and buckled, making way for new sidewalks. Mounds of earth rise from the streets, founded up by men and machines. Intersections can be negotiated on foot only with extreme caution. The entire district is in a final state of disruption before the new pavement begins to take shape.

"Everyone Will Be Glad" A Jacksonville business man Tuesday compared the situation to Chicago's loop district when a subway was under construction.

"You couldn't go anywhere without running into barricades," he recalled, "and it is about the same around here. Everyone will be glad when the job is done and conditions get back to normal."

Traffic that normally uses East State street was detoured over Court street Tuesday.

West State traffic moved slower than usual near the square, due to the one-way barricade at West street.

White Hall Unit Of Home Bureau Hears Two Talks

White Hall—The Home Bureau Night unit No. 1 met Monday evening at the home of Mrs. Gladys Ritchey with Mrs. Edna Meyers, Alvera Conrod and Betty Lakin serving as assistants to the hostess.

Mrs. Clemmons, home economics teacher of the high school and Mrs. Fred Mitts were guests.

Mrs. Gussie Frazier, the chairman, presided and roll call was answered with "My Favorite Bread Variation."

Mrs. Frazier announced she had appointed Miss Mary Callans to serve as vice chairman for the balance of this year; due to the resignation of Mrs. Charles Downey who has become vice chairman of the newly formed night unit of the Home Bureau.

Miss Sophia Powell gave the major lesson on "Entertaining at Tea and Parties," with a demonstration of preparing checker board sandwiches of green, pink and white bread slices.

Miss Dorothy M. Young gave the minor lesson "We Can Have Modern Rural Schools in Illinois."

Entertainment in charge of Mrs. Emma Tunnison was enjoyed. Miss Powell presided at beautifully appointed tea table and served tea cakes, spiced tea and mints.

The October meeting will be held at the home of Miss Emma Thewett, with Mrs. Haverfield, Mrs. Dale Black and Miss Mae Nichols assisting.

District Attorney Who Sent Capone To Prison Dies

Chicago, Sept. 20.—(P)—George E. Q. Johnson, 75, the former U.S. district attorney who sent Al Capone to prison for income tax evasion, died last night.

His death resulted from a brain hemorrhage in his home shortly after arrival from the law office where he and his son, George, Jr., were in partnership.

Johnson, a native of Harcourt, Iowa, was named U.S. district judge in 1922 after having served from 1927 until that time as district attorney. He retired to private law practice in 1933.

Active in Republican politics during the early 20s, he began his court career as the first master of chancery in Circuit Court here in 1923.

He was best known for having used the income tax law against prohibition gangsters. In addition to Capone, his convictions were won against the gang lord's brother, Ralph; Jake and Sam Guzik, Terry Druggan, Frankie Lake and others.
